- 1a Read the sentences and cross out the forms which are not possible. Sometimes both forms may be correct.
- When I was little, I used to / would want to be a pop star when I grew up.
  - I used to / would practise in front of the mirror with a hairbrush as a microphone.
  - My mother used to / would laugh, but kindly.
  - She used to / would tell me that I could be anything I wanted.
  - But she used to / would warn me that it wouldn't be easy to be a pop star.
  - I really used to / would believe I could do it, but now I'm quite happy being a dentist!
- b Talk to your partner. Tell them about the ambitions you had when you were a child, using used to and would where appropriate.
- 2a Make questions using the prompts.
- What / being successful / mean to you?
  - Who / successful / in your family?
  - What / your biggest goal / in life?
  - What / one job / you wouldn't like to do?
  - Which / better - an indoor / outdoor job? Why?
  - What / your dream job?
- b Make the questions indirect using Would you mind telling me ..., I'd like to know ... or another suitable starter. Then use the questions to interview your partner. Ask follow-up questions.
- 3a Read the text and complete it with one word in each space. The first letter is given.

According to a recent survey, about 20% of workers around the world work from home at least once a week, and nearly 10% work from home every day. There are obvious advantages. You can often fit in your <sup>1</sup> w_____ h_____ at any time that's convenient for you, and you don't have to spend some of your <sup>2</sup> s_____ on travelling to and from the office. The <sup>3</sup> w_____ c_____ might also be a lot better in the peace and comfort of your own home. However, many people also felt that if they weren't in the office, they were less likely to be given <sup>4</sup> p_____ as the boss might not notice their good work. Being out of the office could therefore damage their <sup>5</sup> c_____. Equally, they might be more likely to be made <sup>6</sup> r_____ if the company got into trouble, because they had not been able to build a relationship with the boss.

- b Do you, or would you like to, work from home? Why/Why not? Discuss with a partner.
